

BASIC CERTIFICATE COURSE IN PALLIATIVE NURSING

A six-week intensive training programme in palliative care for nurses.

The course, offered by the Pain and Palliative Care society in Calicut, Kerala, South India, is aimed at acquiring and enhancing knowledge, skills and attitude. The course is suitable for nurses with an interest or some previous experience in palliative care. Those who hold a recognised diploma or degree in nursing are eligible to apply for the course Palliative care is a growing specialty in India. Few centres devote all their time to patients with incurable diseases and the only very few centers offer structured training for nurses.

The training programme:

- Provides hands-on training in palliative nursing and communication skills.
- Introduces trainees to a range of methods of palliative care delivery.
- Includes lectures by specialists in the field, assignments, presentations and project preparation followed by an overall assessment.
- Candidates maintain a logbook during the course.
- Evaluation is carried out by the candidates, their peers and the faculty.

Course fee is Rs. 5000 (Rupees five thousand only).

A few subsidised seats are available for Indian candidates at Rs. 2500 (Rupees Two thousand five hundred only).

A certain number of scholarships to cover the course fee are available for deserving candidates.

Limited number of fellowships of Rs.2500 (Rupees Two Thousand five hundred) are also available

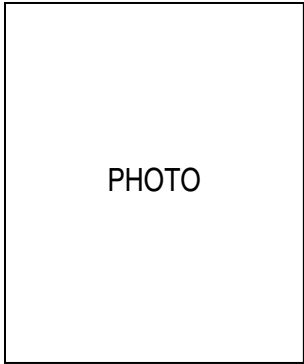

Twin shared accommodation is available in the training and inpatient center at a nominal rent of Rs; 750 per month.
